Today, at the heart of Philadelphia’s burgeoning riverfront, Penn Treaty Park keeps the spirit of peace and community alive, welcoming neighbors and visitors alike. Seven acres of open green space, clean picnic areas, new playground equipment, and seasonal community events invite all to share in Penn’s vision of a “Green Country Towne” on the Delaware River.
OUR MISSION

"He that does good for good's sake seeks neither paradise nor reward, but he is sure of both in the end." – William Penn

After years of informal volunteer efforts, a small group of community-minded citizens had a vision of a safer and cleaner Penn Treaty Park. In 2005, we created a grass-roots effort to preserve and promote the park as a positive green space for family and community.

The Friends of Penn Treaty Park began by overseeing the refurbishment of park monuments, as well as the addition of new benches and playground equipment. Today, we have grown into a regional community of members and volunteers dedicated to protecting and enhancing the park.
